About Valkyrie Profile: Lenneth

Long ago, the worlds were forged: Midgard, the domain of mortals, and Asgard, the realm of celestial beings—elves, giants, and gods. Amid the heavens, the sands of time flowed peaceably, until one fateful day. What began as a simple feud between the Aesir and Vanir would soon ignite a divine war that would come to rage across the lands of men, heralding the coming of the end of the world.

By Odin's command the battle maiden descends from Valhalla, surveying the chaos of Midgard, seeking the souls of the worthy.

She is the Chooser of the Slain. She is the Hand of Destiny. She is the Valkyrie. As war ravages Asgard above and Ragnarok threatens the world's end, she must learn her own story, and discover her own destiny. From the heavens on high to the world down below, the battle for the souls of gods and men begins.

About Star Ocean: The Second Story R

Claude C. Kenny, a young officer in the Pangalactic Federation, discovers an unfamiliar mechanism during an investigation on the Planet Milokeenia led by his father, Admiral Ronyx J. Kenny. In order to show his bravery, he goes against his father's orders and touches the device, which then swallows him up in a dazzling light and transports him away.

A short time later, Claude awakens to the sight of a vast expanse of green trees, making him realize he has been transported to an unknown land. He immediately attempts to contact Ronyx, only to find that his communication device is entirely useless, leaving him puzzled as to what to do next.

For the time being, he decides to survey his surroundings, only to see a monster about to attack a young girl. Claude immediately shouts and rushes into battle to defeat the monster, using the Phase Gun given to him by his father.

Rena Lanford, the young girl saved by Claude, is convinced that he is the legendary "Hero of Light," due to him using a weapon that appeared to her as a sword of light to defeat the monster that was attacking her. To thank him and ask him to save the world, Rena brings Claude to her village, Arlia.
